INTRODUCTION

This handbook on the Enemy Intelligence in Denmark is prepared as a ready reference book for the use of the Research Desk and no dissemination is anticipated.

The material and the interpretation placed thereon is based on Reports received in this office up to March 15, 1944. It is evident that any part of this material may be altered by the receipt of additional reports, and therefore must be regarded as a summary of facts known on the above date.

The documents on which this study has been made are on file in this office and available in the event further details are required.
EXPLANATION OF TERMS

The meaning of the terms used for the different persons in this book is as follows:

STAFF MEMBERS: Persons who have been identified officially or otherwise, as belonging to the official structure of the enemy intelligence organization.

SECRET
BEST, Dr. Werner
@ Dr. Karl Rudolf Best

German. Chief of German civil authority in Denmark, with title of Minister Plenipotentiary. An associate of Himmler in the early development of the Sicherheitsdienst. Represents a faction of the S.D. opposed to brutal and violent methods. Has stated that since Danish Nazis only represented about 5% of the country he did not see why he should bolster them up. Intelligent and charming.

Address:

HANNEKEN, General von Hermann

German. Nazi Commander-in-Chief in Denmark. Former under-secretary to Goering. Close associate of Himmler. Replaced General Ludke as German Army Commander in Denmark on October 2, 1942. There is great friction between Hanneken and Best. Hanneken's failure to visit King Christian since he arrived in Denmark is indicative of the tension between the two countries.
ENGLMANN, Colonel von

German. Appointed Leiter of Abwehrstelle Copenhagen in June 1943 in succession to Howoldt. Had charge of Abwehr Gruppe in North Africa where he received a decoration. He already held an Iron Cross, 1st Class. Had charge of C.E. work in Abwehrstelle Brussels in 1941 and later for a short time in Prague.

Description: 45-50 years of age; very thin; speaks French.

HOWOLDT, Kapitan-zur-See Max or Heinz

German. Leiter of Abwehrstelle Copenhagen before Engelmann. Thought to have gone to the Balkans.

Description: Born 1893; height 5'9"; corpulent; red complexion; dark; smooth hair; face rather round; clean shaven; short and stumpy figure; broad shoulders; usually wears naval uniform; speaks with Hamburg accent.

Address: (while in Denmark) Palace Hotellet, Raadhuspladsen, Copenhagen.

LUTZE, Oberstleutnant Johannes Friedrich

German. Second in command to Engelmann, Abwehrstelle Copenhagen.

Has a home about 20 km. from Hamburg. Has been in London before the war; speaks fluent French, English and Italian. Was a captain in German Army 1914-18. Responsible for recruiting at least one agent.

Description: Born about 1890; 5'7"; very lined thin face; dark complexion; grey hair; grey eyes; deep voice in German but not in English; rather slight build; yellow teeth; nervous manner; ill for years with malaria.

Office Address: Room 212; Hotel Cosmopolite, Copenhagen.
KIESEL, Kapitän-Leutnant Otto

German. Officer of Abwehrstelle Copenhagen who appears also to have charge of the Abwehr posts at Skagen and Frederikshavn. Responsible for the watch maintained on Swedish harbours by fishing smacks in the Kattegat.

Description: Born about 1910; height 6'0"; broad shoulders; heavy face like a prize-fighter's; healthy complexion; clean shaven; thick lips; good ordinary teeth; blue-grey eyes; fair hair; no scars; typical Prussian. Wears civilian clothes.

MEYER-PITTON, Major

German. Member of the Abwehr staff in Copenhagen. Responsible for Abwehr communications throughout Denmark. Former postmaster of Hamburg.

CRONE, Oberleutnant Heinrich von

FRIELITZ, Friedrich Karl

German. Abwehr official. Official German Press Attaché and Landkreisleiter of the two official Nazi organisations in Denmark before the invasion. At times indiscreet, very capable, though perhaps not a very ardent Nazi; dropped into obscurity after the invasion, being somewhat eclipsed by Meissner, but has continued to do under-cover work, chiefly at recruiting Danes for use as agents overseas. Holds S.A. rank of Hauptsturmführer.

GROOS, Dr.
(Possibly GROSS, head of Censorship)

German. Official on the staff of Abwehrstelle Copenhagen. Arrived in Denmark in January 1940. Has an office on the 3rd floor of Hotel Cosmopolite.

MEISSNER, Gustav

German. Assistant Press Attache under Frielitz before the invasion, and since then a personal assistant to Dr. Best. Meissner's return to Copenhagen may signify that his Army Service is finished. Again it may signify that his successors, Schütze and Schröder have been too mild.

Native of Fjótsdalsheðrad, Iceland. Home address: Kirkevej 15, Charlottenlund.
HANSEN

Possibly only cover-name of a German officer of Abwehrstelle Copenhagen. It is thought that he might have lived in Berlin. He may be identical with Hansen who acted as host to Norwegians at last Olympic Games, but he is not thought to be Hansen of the Furenak.
